A bit of road work, done by Logan City, very much appreciated by the Utah Agricultural College, is the stretch at the upper end of fourth north street and along seventh east street, upon which College property fronts. The road has been graded up, the weeds have been removed, and the rocks have been taken away. This work is especially valuable to the College because it comes at a time when everything possible is being done on the campus to get ready for the new school year which opens September 19, 1916. The lawns are being trimmed along the edges, the bare ground around the new Chemistry Building is being beautified, and the wondrous flower beds are receiving the care of an expert landscape gardener.

VILLA BEATS HIS PURSUERS

Bandit's Followers Are Scattered and Power Forever Broken, Declares General Garcia

Chihuahua City, Aug. 1.—Villa only escaped Carranza columns pursuing him in northern Durango by minutes several times in the last few weeks, according to a report which General Jacinto Trevino announced he had received today from General Ernesto Garcia in the Penoles district.

General Garcia recently took the blood oath, against Villa because some members of his family were ruthlessly killed by outlaws.

"I left Parral with 500 men after conference with generals Ramos and Lares, and on the 13th came to Hacienda Lacinga, where I found that Villa had killed some members of my family and other peaceful citizens. From there we went on in three columns, General Lares toward Concepcion, Gen. Jacinto Hernandez toward Valaquillo, and myself with the Brigade Juarez, went to Refugio.

"Under my orders General Hernandez moved to Guadalupe, but the enemy had fled to San Fermin. The three columns advanced jointly to San Isidro with Villa but one hour ahead of us. There we engaged in a running fight, continuing to La Parido. We killed a number and captured more, who were promptly shot. We also captured four cars of provisions and other supplies.

"We found the enemy had divided into two columns, one under Villa going to Cerro Gordo, the other to San Fermin. Gen. Mathias Ramos tried to capture Villa by surprise attack, but Villa fled at the first shots to El Paso, Del Pinone, where General Hernandez forced him to move quickly on again.

"From this point the enemy dispersed into very small bands and scattered into the hills. At Enrimalda we caught a courier of Calonel Padilla going to Jara. Accordingly we spread out, occupying down to Mapimi, keeping ing in touch with General Lares, who advanced through Jara to Conejos.

"We then discovered that Villa had remained behind and returning to Paso Del Pinone, we captured three Villistas who confessed that Villa and Uribe with less than fifty men were hidden in a secluded canyon. In return for their lives they guided us to the place twenty-five miles away, but Villa, having had time to rest got away in the nick of time.

"I am certain that one column alone killed over eighty Villistas in the different fights, apart from the prisoners captured, all of whom were shot. I consider that the power of Villa is gone forever, and I believe that the well-mounted patrols we have out will soon account for the small bands that remain hidden in the Sierras."

Sixty Killed by Explosion.
Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 1.—The explosion of a car filled with dynamite killed sixty and wounded forty Carranzista soldiers at Empalme, near Guaymas, Sonora, according to reports received here today. It was stated that the Mexican authorities are proceeding in their investigation on the theory that the explosion was due to a shot deliberately fired into the car. Buildings in Empalme were said to be badly injured.
